CIELO SKY LOUNGE

Fall for the sweeping views of the city from this bar's open-air roof terrace

The sophisticated Cielo Sky Lounge is accessible via an exclusive VIP elevator. That may make you think it's all about image at this place, but once those elevator doors open to an open air terrace with spectacular views over the picturesque Dubai Creek, you'll feel instantly relaxed.

The vibe is reminiscent of Balearic isles with a décor of cool blues and bright whites. The ultra-chic sky lounge roof terrace is quickly becoming the most talked about and must-visit party destination in Dubai featuring the hottest DJs and trendy ambiance. Not to mention one of the most attractive places to enjoy sundowners combined with views across the metropolis.

Guests can unwind enjoying the incredible creek views at sunset until early evening when the stunning venue will transform into a late-lounge destination, creating a home for deep house music and performances from local to international celebrity DJs.

The ambience will provide the ultimate destination for Dubai residents to party, escape the city, enjoy drinks and light tapas and be transported to the Med.

Music lovers will delight in internationally renowned German DJ and Producer, Robin Schulz who is an absolute star in the analog and digital realms.

Robin has had huge international success with his remix of 'waves' by Dutch hip-hop artist, Mr. Probz, transforming him from local hero to an internationally acclaimed deep house star.

Robin also achieved number 1 in the iTunes charts in 27 countries and the number 1 position in the worldwide Shazam charts with his remix of Lilly Wood and The Prick's 'Prayer in C'. Touring the world, Robin's sounds have melted away minds in countless clubs, at small and big festivals. And now, at Cielo!

The party season at Cielo Sky Lounge will feature both local and internationally recognised DJs and will see the launch of several new dinner and brunch concepts throughout the season.

The ultra-chic blue and white decor, inspired by the Mediterranean islands of Mykonos and Ibiza, offers the perfect backdrop to enjoy cocktails with commanding views across the city.

The trendy and fashionable crowd who frequent this hot spot will dance the night away to chic tunes of distinguished DJs.

Even if dancing the night away in high heels is not your thing, Cielo Sky Lounge has something for you. Those who prefer a more relaxed vibe during sundowners are in for a real treat.

With alfresco seating and a chill-out lounge and bar area, guests can enjoy the new innovative cocktail menu created by Cielo's award-winning team.

The new Mediterranean inspired tapas menu makes a perfect addition to your cocktails with delicious treats that are vertically presented - a tower of tapas that makes for a chic and comfortable dining experience beneath the starry skies. Prepare for an evening that melts into night at heavenly Cielo. 🍷
